

Navigating the Festival

What to do prior to the Festival

1. On the Performance List double check the day & time of your classes. Plan your travel time so as to arrive at least 15 minutes prior to the start of your class. Westminster United Church 247 Broadway Orangeville
2. Make sure that you have a legitimate copy for the Adjudicator of all the pieces you are playing/singing in the Festival (original score or digital download with proof of purchase). Please label your book or sheet music with the participant's name.
3. Review with your teacher, the guidelines pertaining to your classes, to ensure that you are prepared to participate accordingly.

The festival Program of Performances and Festival guidelines are available on the website www.odmf.ca

What to do on the day of a Festival class

1. Have a plan for parking as parking spots at the church venue are limited. Street parking is permitted but be aware of signage
2. Prepare to arrive 15 minutes early for each class and be prepared to stay from start to finish.
3. Audience members are welcome to attend the adjudicated performance. Bring your family and friends! A freewill Donation, in lieu of admission, will be collected at the door.
4. When you arrive, check in with the session Secretary in the lobby at the top of stairs [main entrance]. Hand the secretary your music for the Adjudicator.

What to expect in a Festival class

1. When the previous class is completed, there will be a brief time of transition as those performers exit and the next class begins.
2. The Emcee or Secretary will introduce the class and the Adjudicator.
3. The Emcee or Secretary will call up the class participants and invite them to sit in the designated row of seats at the front of the audience, in the order of their performances.
4. The Emcee, Secretary or Adjudicator will ask the first participant to give his/her/their performance.
5. Each consecutive participant must wait until invited to perform, as the Adjudicator may need some time between performances to finish writing comments.

6. The participants will introduce themselves, their piece[s] and its composer, and then perform their selection[s]. If playing more than one piece in the same class, wait for the Adjudicator's nod to proceed with the additional piece[s]
7. After the performance, bowing during audience applause is expected.
8. After bowing, the participants will return to the same seat they were sitting in prior to their performances.
9. After all the performances in the class are completed, the Adjudicator will offer verbal feedback to the group of participants. This part of the class may involve individual comments, a group discussion, demonstrations, trying things again, or anything the Adjudicator deems educationally important to that particular group.
10. The Adjudicator or the Secretary will hand back your music, the comment sheet and your certificate.

Please note

1. NO FLASH PHOTOGRAPHY ALLOWED DURING PERFORMANCES: • Photography at sessions is permitted with the following provisions:
 - Still photographs may be taken briefly between classes but only if the timetable permits. No photography is permitted for commercial purposes, except by the accredited agents of newspapers, television stations, etc.
 - All users of cameras and camcorders must not advance further forward than the Adjudicator(s). The use of any flash or lighting is forbidden during performances. There must be no movement by the operator during the performances. All recording equipment must be SILENT.
