

26th Annual Orangeville & District Music Festival

Celebrating "The Power of Music"
April 28-30, 2025

Festival Guidelines and Class Eligibility

The Festival is operated by a volunteer committee consisting of a Registrar, Treasurer and Proctors. The Festival is held in the spring followed by a Gala Concert two weeks later.

Performance opportunities are available in all disciplines and styles, in a non-competitive forum for all levels/ages and adult classes. The information on your registration form will determine your class assignment according to your instrument and grade level. Please read the following for eligibility, regulations and other important information:

All classes are open to amateurs only.

- *winds/brass: all band instruments and percussion
- *strings: classical violin/fiddle, harp, guitar, banjo, ukulele, other
- *voice: classical, music theatre, pop, jazz, ballad, sacred, duets, trios, quartets, barbershop, other (no recorded accompaniment)
- *piano: all levels of RCM, CNCM, Canadian Conservatories, etc. to be performed on a Yamaha grand
- *organ: performed on a Casavant Pipe Organ
- *ensembles: instrumental and/or voice
- *own compositions

Participants receive a certificate of participation, as well as constructive adjudication. Performance awards are available and a gala concert will feature the best performances, as chosen by the adjudicator.

DONATIONS: Revenue is generated by Festival entry fees and donations received from Sponsors and Friends of the Festival. This support ensures the festival's continuance and performance awards. Sponsors and Friends of the Festival are acknowledged in advertising materials and concert programs.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

Eligibility:

- The Festival, unless otherwise stated, shall be open to amateurs only. “Amateur” means any person who, up to the date of closing of entries for the forthcoming Festival, has not been in receipt of remuneration forming the major portion of livelihood from the profession or practice of music
- Participants who have taken an RCM or Conservatory Canada Exam in the preceding year are not eligible to enter that grade level in the current festival year. (i.e. if you took Level 4 piano exam in 2024, you may not enter Level 4 in 2025 festival)

Classes - You will be notified of the time and date for your class(es):

- Following the closing date for entries, the Festival committee shall decide the order in which the classes will take place and reserves the right to alter the order, if necessary
- The Festival may, in its sole discretion, combine classes if it considers the number of entries in such classes to be insufficient
- The Festival reserves the right to subdivide any class into two or more classes under circumstances where the number or character of the entries would justify such a subdivision

Photocopying of copyright music for the purpose of performance is illegal.

No photocopies, computer-generated copies or copy derived from computer programmes will be allowed in this Festival in any case whatsoever, unless participants show legal authorization by the publisher, proof of payment or proof of public domain.

Adjudications:

- Original music must be provided for the Adjudicator(s)
- The Festival reserves the right to substitute or appoint additional Adjudicator(s)
- All performance awards are given at the absolute discretion of the Adjudicator(s) to participants who show the most promise of future development musically
- Books for submission must have registrant’s name on them
- Changes to order of the pieces to be performed cannot be made on the day of the festival
- No participant may approach the Adjudicator(s). This may result in disqualification. No teacher or member of the public may speak to the Adjudicator(s). Necessary questions from a participant must be directed to the registration desk

Adjudication Performance:

- Original music must be provided for the Adjudicator(s)
- Announce your piece and composer. If you are performing more than one piece in the same class, wait for the Adjudicator's instructions to proceed with additional pieces
- Solo piano and vocal Piece(s) must be memorized
- Repeats are to be omitted from all music. Da capos and first and second endings are to be observed
- Accompanists are the responsibility of the soloist/group. Programme order will not be changed to accommodate accompanists
- Cell phones must be turned off
- No rehearsal on stage is permitted; piano may NOT be tried except by accompanists. Tuning and warm-up are permitted within the allowed time limit where noted
- Offstage and warm-up facilities are not available, nor should they be expected
- Entrance fee, as a spectator for the classes, is by donation

NO FLASH PHOTOGRAPHY ALLOWED DURING PERFORMANCES:

Photography at sessions is permitted with the following provisos:

- Still photographs may be taken briefly between classes but only if the timetable permits. No photography is permitted for commercial purposes, except by the accredited agents of newspapers, television stations, etc.
- All users of cameras and camcorders must not advance further forward than the Adjudicator(s). The use of any flash or lighting is forbidden during performances. There must be no movement by the operator during the performances. All recording equipment must be SILENT. No photography or videotaping is allowed of the participants or Adjudicator(s) without their express permission. These rules are designed to protect the concentration of the performer and the Adjudicator(s). They apply to any other type of behaviour which might also damage this concentration
